

Faculty of Business and Law HDR Retreat

The Events Centre (in Deakin Downtown building) - 727 Collins Street Melbourne, Level 5, Tower 2

Date: 7/11/2019

Time: 9.15 am for 9.30am – 6.30pm (tea and coffee available from 9am)

9.30am	Welcome Associate Professor Edward Podolski – Faculty HDR Director
9.40am	Professor Leonard Lee – National University of Singapore, Business School How I succeeded in academia and what you can learn from me?
10.30am	Dr Karen Kelsky – ‘The Professor Is In’ Hacking the academic presentation – covers the ins and outs of a good talk, including organization, delivery, technology, body language and dealing with Q and A. Also addresses the fear, anxiety and Imposter Syndrome that so often hinders our public speaking and shows you how to overcome them.
12pm	LUNCH
	Room 1
	Room 2
1pm	Students past 1.5 years Consumed Load
	Students up to 1.5 years Consumed Load
	Dr Karen Kelsky – ‘The Professor Is In’ (1pm – 2:30pm) ‘Hacking the academic job market’ – closely examines all aspects of the job search including the real conditions of the job market; what search committees look for; how to build a competitive record; and how to articulate that record in job documents and interviews.
	Dr Jon Hopwood – ‘Social Agility’ (1pm - 2pm) ‘PhD Consultant Development Program’ – covers the skills necessary to engage and consult with industry leaders, and provides an overview of the ‘PhD Consultant Development Program’ running in 2020.
	Dr Jon Hopwood – ‘Social Agility’ (2:30pm - 3:30pm) ‘The Applied PhD’ – covers how to leverage the skills you obtained during your PhD to get a job in industry; the additional skills you must develop; and how to succeed in industry post PhD.
	Professor Jenny Stewart – ‘Research Coaching Australia’ (2pm - 3:30pm) ‘Managing the supervisory relationship’ – a case study-based approach to working through common problems and frictions that arise in the course of the PhD with supervisors. Will offer you practical tools to manage relationships with your supervisors and mentors.
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Dr Elizabeth Ooi - University of Western Australia (4pm – 4:45pm) ‘How I survived the academic job market and transition to academia’ – Covers Elizabeth’s academic job market journey, what tips you can use as you prepare for the job markets yourself, what pitfalls to expect, and how to transition from a PhD student to being an independent researcher.
	Dr Robin Visser – Senior Research Officer, Wyndham City Council (4:45pm-5:30pm) ‘How my PhD kick-started my career outside of academia’ – Covers the transferability of skills from a PhD to a non-academic and non-research focused career, what you need to do during your PhD to get the most of your degree, and what a PhD does not prepare you for.
5.30pm	Closing Comments from Associate Professor Edward Podolski
5.35 – 6.30pm	Informal drinks and snacks