Presentations and Podcasts

Bart Ziino gave a public lecture last week at the Shrine of Remembrance, titled ‘Armistice in Australia, 1918’. The podcast is available via the Shrine website or via iTunes.

Publication

A brief article by Bart Ziino about Armistice in Australia has been published in the Shrine of Remembrance’s magazine, Remembrance (vol. 8, no. 2).

Event

Next week on Saturday morning Bart Ziino will be at the ‘Word for Word’ festival in Geelong, conducting an in-conversation with Peter Cochrane on his new book Best We Forget: The War for White Australia 1914-18.

Reminder- Call for papers

Clare Corbould is on the Program Committee for the triennial Berks Conference in 2020. Here is the CFP, announced recently:

We are excited to announce that the Call for Papers is now live for the 2020 “Big” Berkshire Conference on the History of Women, Genders, and Sexualities happening May 21-23, 2020 at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland!

The theme of the 2020 conference is Gendered Environments: Exploring Histories of Women, Genders, and Sexualities in Social, Political, and “Natural” Worlds. We encourage submissions that promote a wide range of intersecting conversations and interactions among scholars, activists, artists, and members of diverse communities on the conference themes and on the history of women, genders, and sexualities more broadly.

More information can be found on the 2020 Berkshire Conference Website here.

Phillip Strobi is planning a conference in Vienna in April 2019, Imaging Emigration—Translating Exile: Cultural Translation and Knowledge Transfer on Alternative Routes of Escape from Nazi Terror in/via Austria

The conference will take place at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna from 1 - 3 April 2019. Presentations can be given in either German or English.
